WORKSHOP LEVELS

There will be no auditions. Level 1, 2 and 3 are open to all participants that have a Full pass and that we recommend meet the level requirements listed below. Level 4 and 5 are only open to participants that have a Full pass and that meet the WSDC points requirements listed below.

Level 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You will not compete at all and you have never competed in a WSDC competition before. - You know the basic rhythm (double and triple steps) and a couple of basic 6-count patterns and whip. You know them well enough to social dance with your basic patterns. - You might have some knowledge about variations and styling to your basics and want to learn more. - You probably still have problems to do your basics with good technique and you are new to syncopation, extensions and musicality. - You want to learn new patterns and more variations of your basics in a slow pace.
Level 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You will compete in Newcomer or Novice division but do not have a WSDC number. - You will not compete this time but you have competed in a WSDC competition before. - You know several basic patterns and you also know variations on them. - You also know some styling and maybe even syncopations to your basics and want to learn more. - You can social dance without any problem as long as the music is not too fast. - You have probably started to play with musicality and want to explore it more. - Techniques like rock'n go, extensions, tracing, floating/traveling anchor, invitational lead, constant connection might be new to you or you might have tried it but you are not really comfortable with them. - You want to learn new patterns and more variations of your basics in a medium pace.
Level 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You will compete in Novice division and you do have a WSDC number with Novice points. - You will not compete this time but you have competed in Novice division before and you do have a WSDC number with Novice points. - You get a recommendation from the instructors or the judges to be in this level. - You know techniques like rock'n go, extensions, tracing, floating/traveling anchor, invitational lead, constant connection so the instructor don't have to explain them to you. - You want to learn more about getting a good technique to your foundation. - You also want to have more patterns and styling in a quick pace.
Level 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You have at least 15 WSDC registry Novice points.
Level 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You compete in Advanced WSDC registry division.
